

We are indebted to Suzanne Young who has volunteered to research the names for the Memorial, and the results of her labours to date are listed below. We are hoping to include anyone who lived in what is now the civil parish of Borough Green. Suzanne is also preparing "potted histories" for each name, which will be lodged in the Library, and the Parish Archives, and we are also considering a website. If you know any names that aren't on this list, or any bits of information about those who are, please let us know

World War II

I currently have 16 names from WW2, they are:

Richard Beacon
Ronald Arthur Bramley
George William Durling
Thomas George Foord
Sidney Francis
Edgar Harry Green
Harry Harvey
George Frederick Hollman
Robert George Houlder
Stanley Percival Lewis
Leslie Bertie Neaves
Ronald Charles Powell
Albert James Selman
Frank Styance
David John Summers
Cyril Joseph Wicks

All of the above are on the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website however, we would not have known that two of the above were connected to Borough Green if we had not been informed by Mr Styance and Timothy Reynolds of BGBC. I am still working on the above names but I believe one of the names is definitely more Platt than Borough Green.

Word War I

I currently have 18 names from WW1, they are:

Samuel O Bird
William T Bird
Benjamin J Bunyan
George Cunningham
William Cunningham
Henry Elliott
Alfred Evans
Ernest Hood
John Mercer
Herbert S Mitchell
Joseph Moorecroft
Edward G Newman
Sidney G Pearce
Clarence Pemble
Arthur Taylor
Reginald Thorndycraft
Harry Waters

All of the above are on the memorial at the back of the Church of the Good Shepherd.

Arthur Leonard Austen Tomlyn - memorial on family grave in the burial ground of Borough Green Baptist Church (Informant: Timothy Reynolds).

Again all of the above are on the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website.

In addition to the above I am currently working on a further 38 names from the First World War found on the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website which show Borough Green in the "Additional Information" field. However, some of these are more Platt than Borough Green. Also, we have to be careful not to pick up those from "Burrough Green" in Cambridgeshire.
